CODE OF CONDUCT

The MVT Code of Conduct must be followed (see www.mvt.org.uk)

We will be the guests of Stainmore Railway Company and so appropriate personal conduct is expected at all times. To ensure that the event runs safely and efficiently, we ask all those attending to observe the following;

Display and camping spaces will be allocated on arrival.

Please ask an organiser to show you to your allocated area before you set up

Please register details of any support vehicles on arrival including contact number

Support vehicle/trailer parking is available away from the display area

All safety notices, signs and instructions from marshals must be adhered to

All tents /displays should be equipped with a fire extinguisher/fire bucket and all guy ropes and pegs must be safe and marked

Noise must be kept at a reasonable level and minimised after 9pm and before 9am

Generators must not be used before 9am and after 9pm and RCDs should be used

BBQs etc are only permitted if raised off ground so lawns are not damaged

Displays must be safe and be supervised by a competent person from 10am-5pm

Any direct contact between vehicle/artefacts and the public must be carefully supervised

Vehicle movement should be minimised once displays are set up and a Marshal must supervise

Vehicles must be in a safe condition, carry a fire extinguisher and must be double chocked and safe for display

Drivers of vehicles must hold a full and valid driving licence, obey road traffic act regulations and be covered by valid insurance

Any weapons brought on site must be used in a manner that is lawful and will not cause alarm or distress

Firing of weapons and use of live or blank ammunition is not allowed

Owners of de-activated firearms must supervise them at all times and have the relevant de-activation certificate available

No Axis or Russian portrayal is permitted.

No Nazi symbols or SS uniforms will be permitted; failure to comply can lead to expulsion from the event.

Rubbish must be taken home

Bookings will be taken on a first come, first served basis;

If for any reason you are unable to attend, please contact us immediately so your allocated space can be filled.

Whilst we do not allow Nazi, SS or other extreme representations, this WW2 event will include historical artefacts and representations of the period which some people might find upsetting.

Please contact the organisers for further details.
